2017/01/06

NSZL will host a book presentation ceremony on January 24, 2017. The book gives a general overview of the romantic Hungarian homeland research concepts of the 19th century, according to which some remaining ancient Hungarians could still be found in the valleys of the Caucasus.

You are cordially invited to the presentation ceremony of the book entitled Magyarok a Kaukázusban. A magyar őshaza kutatása Örményországban és a Kaukázusban [1] (Hungarians in the Caucasus. Search for the Hungarian Homeland in Armenia and the Causasus).

Date: Tuesday January 24, 2017, 5 p.m.
Venue: National Széchényi Library, Boardroom 516

The book will be presented by Sándor Őze (DSc), university professor (Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences, Pázmány Péter Catholic University) and Péter Pál Kránitz, author and editor of the book.

Welcome speech will be delivered by László Boka, Director of Research and Academic Affairs, NSZL.

We are looking forward to seeing you at the event.

During the event, the book will be available at a discount price!
