Masquerade ball in Buda Castle

2019/01/19
2018/12/15

The masquerade ball to be held on January 19, 2019 in Buda Castle will feature illuminator masters, wandering musicians and delicious bites.

In the Lord's 2019 year, in the Month of the Blessed Virgin Mary, on the 19th day, a masquerade ball will be held in the royal palace.

The masquerade ball will feature illuminator masters, wandering musicians and delicious bites. At the festivity, it will also turn out who won the drawing competition entitled A Miniator to Buda! The deadline of the competition is January 6, 2019. During the competition, the most capable young miniator will be found, who can depict the most royal deeds of the king. Dress code to enter the ball includes a mask appropriate for the occasion; at the end of the evening prince and princess of the ball will be elected. No admission fee is charged at the ball, but you need to buy a ticket if you wish to visit the exhibition.

Detailed program of the masquerade ball can be read (in Hungarian) here [1].
The exhibition entitled The Corvina Library and the Buda Workshop [2] will be open from November 6, 2018 until February 9, 2019.

Address: National Széchényi Library – Wing "F" of Buda Royal Palace, 4-5-6 Szent György Square, H-1014 Budapest

(The venue can be approached [3] from Dózsa György Square by the Express Elevator, or by buses No. 16 or 16/A from Dísz Square, via Lion Court.)
